CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Foreword

As a record of lasting friendships and hours of joy and toil;

As a reflector of the greatest spirit of Central High,

As a service to our school—a school whose future shall exceed her attainments of the present—

We have striven to make this book worthy of Central and to embody these ideals in its pages.

In Loving Memory
of
Mrs. Lena D. Gardner

FOR YEARS she was our gentle counsellor and friend. Pure
in thought, wise and just in judgment, kind in deed, charitable in spirit,
she had the love of us all.
Versed in lore, she was a challenge to us to increase our knowledge.
"Let her own works
praise her in the gates."

CHESTER HENRY

THE PARTING WORD

I saw you dancing in the colored lights,
Flushed with the joy of life,
I saw you laughing with the zest
Of youth, so fresh and clean.
We little thought about you then,
For we were laughing too;
We could not think that other days
Might come with bitter tears.

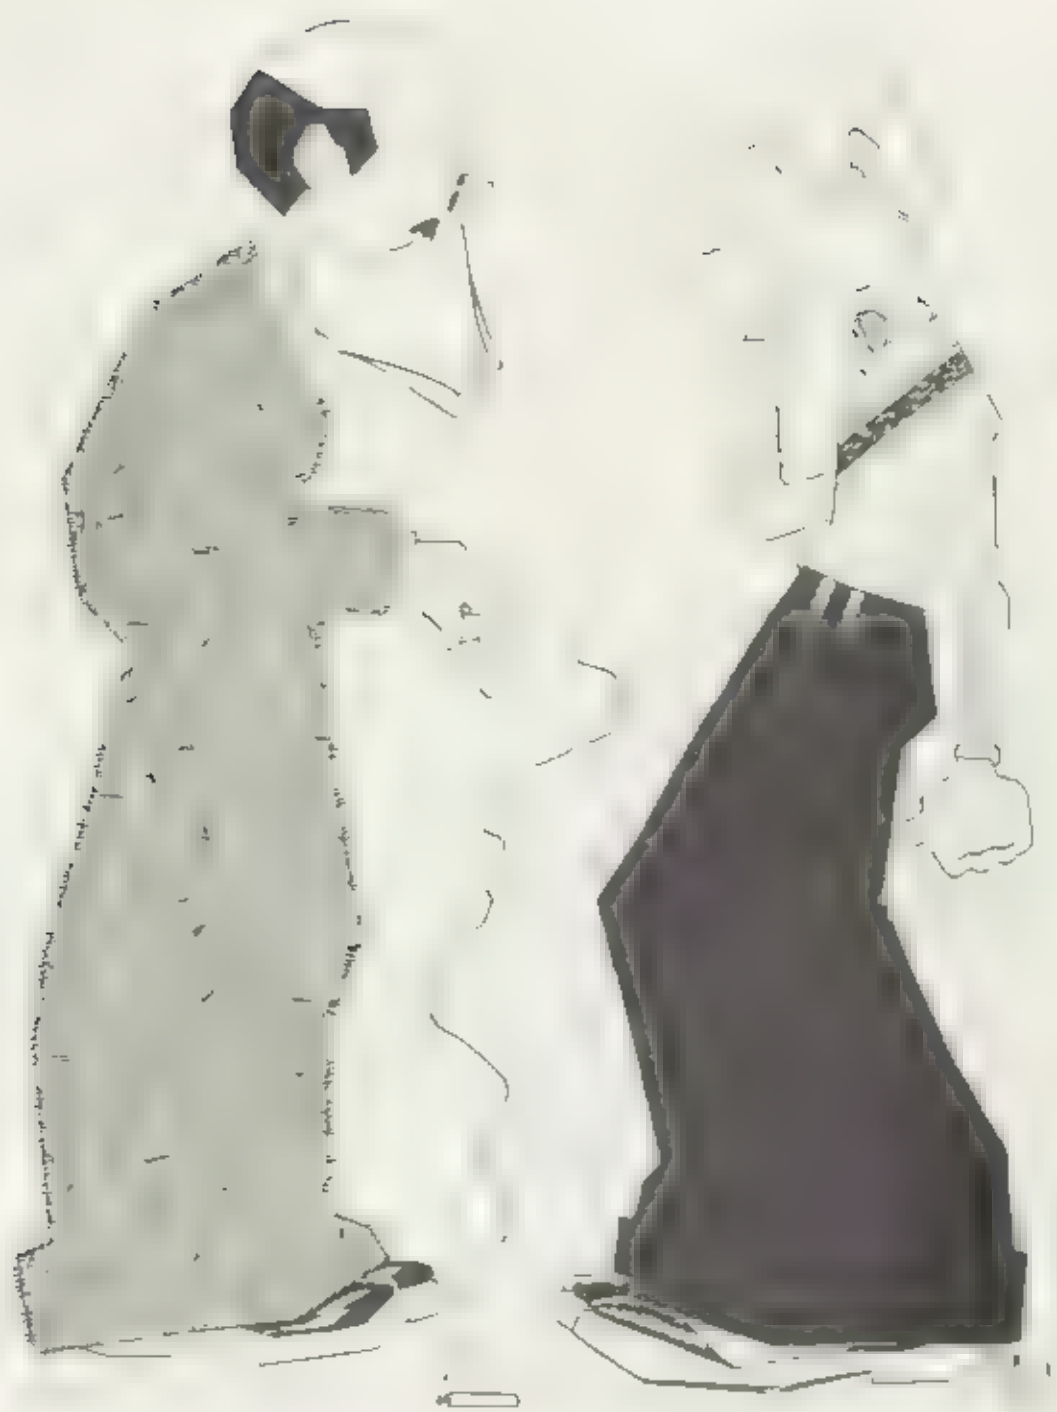

We all had plans—to do our best
In life's delightful game.
And so we laughed, and so we sang;
We had no cares or fears.
But now it's ended like a dream.
We'll hear you laugh no more
Because we stand about your bier
To say our last farewell.

In 1916 a group of boys realized the necessity of organizing a club in the Fort Worth Public High School for the promotion of public speaking and debating. Because these students understood that a club of this character must have a name representative of the ideals of the organization and one that its members would be proud to live up to, this club was named the Senate. The instigator of the Senate was Mr. L. E. Frost, who was then head of the history department. Mr. Newton was elected as sponsor and the son of Mr. Frost was the first president.

In the years that have followed the Senate has carried out the initial policies of the organization, entering annually debating teams and declaimers in the city meets; however, it is not infrequent that these teams get into district meets and often into state meets.

SENATE

Miss McPherson was elected sponsor in 1922 and faithfully held this position until 1923, when she resigned. Miss Geraldine Hall was immediately elected and is sponsor at the present time. She has proved her merit and is held in highest esteem by all the Senators.

The past school year has been a very delightful one for the Senate, because many interesting programs and meetings are listed on the minutes. Among its many entertaining speakers are Mr. Paschal and Miss Burkett. In its open forum meetings the Senate has discussed many current topics of universal interest. The club chose for an emblem a silver bracelet with a purple plate on which is SENATE in silver letters.

Lycaugus Van Zandt and Robert Nelson occupied the positions of president and vice president respectively for the first term of this year, while Robert Nelson is now president and Frank Harrington vice president during the second term.

GIRL RESERVES

By JEAN THOMPSON

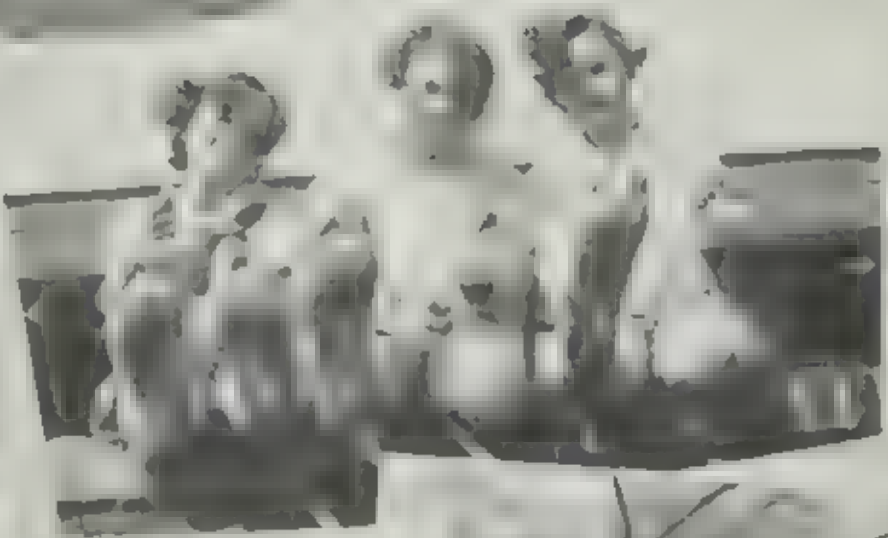

"Girl Reserves are high-minded,
 B'lieve to my soul they're double j'inted,
 They work hard and don't mind it,
 All day long."

Thus goes the old-time Girl Reserve Song—
 I think, no doubt, 'tis true,
 For they work and play the live-long day
 And never do get blue.

They look out for the orphans
 And the new girls by the score,
 And when they finish all their tasks
 They're looking out for more.

There are weiner roasts and parties
 To divert their time for play,
 And the Mother-Daughter Banquet
 Is a big treat, so they say.

Oh, those are the girls that have the pep
 And the old-time spirit, too,
 And they have fun—just pecks of it—
 In the club of the white and blue.

THE MUMMERS

THE STEPMOTHER

The Mummerts, directed by Corinne K. Lewis, presented "The Step Mother," a one-act comedy by Arnold Bennett, on March 11, for the benefit of the Commercial Club and Pep Squad.

The title role of Cora Prout, celebrated novelist, who turned her stepson, Adrian, out of the house, "because"—as she explains to her secretary—"he insisted upon making love to you, which interfered with our work," was well enacted by Helen Willgus.

Camille Moore successfully handled the character of Mrs. Prout's secretary, Christine Feversham, who, when asked why she had permitted Adrian's advances, replied, "I didn't permit them. I wasn't asked to. I tolerated them. You see I had never been secretary to a lady novelist with a stepson before, and I wasn't quite sure what was included in the duties. I always like to give satisfaction."

A very acceptable performance was given by Cecil Smith as Dr. Gardner, whom Mrs. Prout suspects as the author of an anonymous attack on her medical accuracy, but who is in reality her ardent lover.

Allan Rose dashes through the part of Adrian Prout with a professional flourish. Adrian is Mrs. Prout's stepson, who although disinherited because of his interest in Christine, vows that he will yet marry her—"the exquisite flower who is dearer to me than all the world."

Needless to say that in the end stepmother and stepson have become reconciled to each other, and that Mrs. Prout and Dr. Gardner, Christine and Adrian are impatiently awaiting the final fall of the curtain to rush over to the nearest parson's.

"The Stepmother" was also presented on March 19, at Johnston Station for the Tarrant County Student Loan Council under the auspices of Mrs. George Clayton.

Some one has said, "It is quality and not quantity that counts." The Hi-Y Club was reorganized with this idea in view. Only seven boys were enrolled as charter members and since its organization the club has nearly trippled its membership.

With such a capable sponsor, Mr. W. E. King, our club will soon be the leading Hi-Y Club of the city. We have had the backing of the Lions Club, whose members did very much for us.

Mr. Earnest Alexander, one of our leading citizens, has helped our club put over a program. We wish to thank those who help us in our chapel programs, also.

Hi-Y Purpose:

To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school the high standards of Christian character.

Hi-Y Platform:

Clean speech, sport, scholarship, and clean living.

Some are born great, some acquire greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them.

Ipta can not boast of a high lineage, because she was rather a homeless waif for some time. One would hardly recognize her as the orphan who was begging for adoption just a few years ago.

During her very early youth, she was sponsored by students of the Mechanical Drawing Department. She had to be taken care of.

She thrived and grew until it became evident that she could take care of herself, so she was adopted into Central's big Club Family and christened "The Poster Club." Her work was merely to make cards and posters giving notice of shows.

As the other clubs grew and took on new activities, it seemed necessary that all these extra-curricular accomplishments be made known to all the school, and sometime even outside the school, so that Central might have a common spirit of unity and interest as well.

IPTA

It was at this time that Ipta made her debut and hence changed her name, for the old name of "Poster Club" was not comprehensive enough. Her new aim was not only to give notice of coming events, but to put on such an intensive campaign of advertising that a great percent of the students would stop, buy a ticket, and look and listen to the show. She must, then, take up the new duty of salesmanship, as well as advertising.

The faculty and sponsors of the various clubs and activities were so glad to be relieved of the business management of their shows that they readily consented to have a representative student salesman in each of the home rooms.

The club was veritably made over, with La Vel Hubbard as president and business manager, and Wilford Carter and Donald Anderson as assistants.

The following students are acting sales managers: Dick Hazelwood, Elnora Rodgers, Jasper Miller, Thelma Fae Townsend, Ruth Dutton, Elizabeth Short, Abraham Shond, Elton Chapps, Ambrose Burns, Janice Goodbar, Clarence Crotty, Jean Thompson. The president of each home room acts as salesman in that particular room.

The cadets have given an ever-ready, creditable aid in the capacity of door men and ushers.

Ipta is happy in the realization, to a great extent, of her two ideals—a greater financial support for Central's extra-curricular activities and her library, and the fitting of show days more closely into the regular, smooth-running routine of the academic schedule.

ATHLETICS

COACHES

MR. WINKLEMAN

To Coach "Bennie" Winkleman, who first appeared in Central's halls three years ago, we owe our most loyal appreciation. He has shown his supreme ability as a football and basketball mentor, by directing his boys to many glorious victories. The "Winkleman-coached" Panthers have won the City Football Championship for three consecutive years, the District Football Championship this year, and for two years they have worn the diadem of the City Basketball Champions, advancing to the finals of the District Championship. As long as Mr. Winkleman is with us, we, who will have long since been graduated, many rest assured that each year will witness some more "silverware" in our showcase.

For many years there has been one among us who has been faithful in his work, gentle and kind to those about him. He is our Business Manager and Track Coach, Mr. C. W. Berry. His efficient work as Business Manager has enabled our athletic teams to purchase the finest of athletic equipment and to take some wonderful trips.

As a track coach, Mr. Berry has proved his merit. His teams usually come out on top in the city, and show up well in the District, State, and Invitation Meets.

MR. BERRY

MR. MEYERS

Coach W. A. Meyers, alias "Bill" Meyers, has been at Central for three years. He has proved invaluable to the football and basket ball teams. Mr. Meyers is a genuine friend to the boy and is always glad to "lend a willing hand." His cheerful character makes him friends wherever he goes. When "Bill" goes from Central, it will be an evil omen. But as long as he stays, Central will remain the habitat of champions.

Review of the Season

The Panthers closed their 1929 season with a record of nine games won, two lost, and one tied.

They opened the season with a 12-6 decision over Masonic Home. Although they didn't show up so well in this game, the Panthers certainly started the season off right—with a victory.

The following week the purple-jerseyed warriors journeyed out to Ranger to hand the Bulldogs of Ranger High a 13-7 defeat.

The first score was made when Creed flipped a pass laterally to Clynch, who then skirted end. A pass, Clynch to Burton, placed the ball within scoring distance, from where it was put over for the deciding counter.

The Panthers' next victim was Cleburne. Central took the lead when Captain O'Neal blocked a Jacket punt and chased the ball across the goal for a safety.

Clynch threw a pass to Burton for a touchdown from the thirteen-yard line. A short time later, O'Neal recovered another blocked punt across the goal line for a touchdown. During the third quarter Clynch received a broken collarbone. The final score was 14-7 in Central's favor.

Central defeated the fighting Stripling Yellow Jackets 26-0 in her first conference game. A pass, Manton to King, placed the ball within scoring distance. On the next play the same passing combination resulted in a touchdown. After a drive down the field, Manton plunged the line for the second touchdown. The third marker came when O'Neal blocked a punt and recovered across the goal line. Soon afterward, Manton plunged over for the final touchdown. Dave Creed made consistent long gains all afternoon.

The Forest Avenue Lions held the Panthers to a scoreless tie the following week. It was a real battle, and both teams fought until the final whistle blew. Central threatened to score on two occasions, but each time Forest held.

The Panthers were victorious over Highland Park by 6-0. In the middle of the third quarter Herschel King intercepted a short Highlander pass in midair and made a sensational sixty-five-yard run for the touchdown that gave Central her margin for victory.

Central trimmed the Woodrow Wilson Wildcats by a score of 13-6. A pass, Warden to Manton, placed the ball within scoring distance. Manton plunged over. Two passes, Warden to Creed, and Warden to Burton, were good for forty yards. Then Creed carried the ball over for the second touchdown.

The Panthers suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Oak Cliff Leopards by a score of 0-7. This defeat threw the Panthers temporarily from first to third place in the District 3 race. The Panthers took their defeat as gentlemen should and staged a very brilliant comeback to win the District title.

But the very next week the Panthers proved, by trouncing the Bulldogs of the North Dallas aggregation 19-6, that they had just had an "off day" when they lost to Oak Cliff. The Panthers' first score came when they recovered a Bulldog fumble on North Dallas' twenty-five-yard line. Clynch then passed twenty yards to King, who stepped over the goal line for the marker. The next counter came when Central recovered a blocked North Dallas punt. When within scoring distance, Clynch plunged over. Central then intercepted a North Dallas pass. A pass, Clynch to Warden, was good for a touchdown. The Polytechnic Parrots bowed to the powerful Panther attack, 19-0, the following week. The first touchdown came when a Poly punt was blocked, and Rowan Shaw recovered for Central. Clynch shot a pass to Creed for the counter. Then Poly, charging in fast, jarred the ball loose from the kicker. It rolled over the goal line and Henry Tandy fell on it for a touchdown. Clynch skirted right end for the next and final marker.

By defeating their ancient rivals, the North Side Steers, the Panthers won the City Championship. It was a real battle from start to finish. The first Central touchdown came when North Side attempted her first pass. Rowan Shaw intercepted it and ran for a touchdown. At the half, North Side led by 14-6 and it looked like a Steer victory, but the Panthers came to life and made four touchdowns in the closing minutes of the game. It was Manton's brilliant plunges that supplied the scoring punch and Clynch's runs that saved the day. Clynch ripped through left tackle for the second marker. The third came when Central got the ball on downs and Clynch sliced through tackle for the score. After Manton had slashed his way down the field, Clynch went over for another touchdown. Captain Jack O'Neal then intercepted a pass. Manton plowed through for the touchdown.

By virtue of winning the championship of the district, the Panthers went to Waco to meet the Tigers of Waco High. Here they met with their second defeat of the season, by a score of 0-12. The Panthers put up a great fight, but the Cotton Palace tradition held fast. All of the boys played stellar ball.

The 1929 season was the most successful the Panthers have enjoyed in many years. They won the City and District Championships and went into the State Quarterfinals for the first time since Fort Worth entered the Texas Interscholastic League.

David Creed will lead the Panthers next season. Best o' luck, Dave; we hope you will bring dear old Central the 1930 State Championship!

Review of the Season

North Side Steers (31-9) Kieman rallied his team and won the game. The Panthers lost the game 31-9. The players who were chosen were Clynch, Curtis, O'Neal, Hays, and Morgan. Clynch was elected captain.

In the first game the Panthers smothered the Parrots 30-16. Clynch and Chappell led the way to the initial victory.

Central subdued the North Side Steers 31-9. Curtis and Chappell added 8 and 6 points, respectively, to the score.

The Stripling game was a close hard-fought battle as each team fought its hardest from whistle to whistle. Stripling used the Purple quintet to win.

Central threw Poly for a 27-18 loss. Poly threatened in the last quarter but Bill Curtis was the hero in 6 points in fine fashion.

Central scored a decisive victory over Stripling 41-21. Curtis did some brilliant playing when he went wild and scored 16 points in the last period.

Poly was defeated 24-19, in a sizzler. The Panthers kept on the jump from whistle to whistle, but they scored too much for the Parrots.

The North Side Steers threw a scare into the Panthers. But in the second period, the Panthers overwhelmed the enemy 31-9. Clynch made 16 points for high score honors.

North Side was again defeated by a 41-17 count. The Panther offense was brilliant and they flashed a passing attack that was dazzling.

Central lost to Terrill Prep of Dallas, 46-31. Despite their defeat, the Panthers presented their most brilliant performance, fighting one of the strongest teams in the State.

The Purple-men had little trouble in quieting the buzz of the Yellow Jacket, downing the Stripling quintet 26-8.

Outdoing the North Side aggregation 32-16, the Panthers jumped into the lead at the first whistle gradually increasing their margin as the game progressed. Despite the top-heavy score, the Panthers had to fight hard.

The Panthers swamped the Parrots next, 41-19. The Panther forwards were hitting the basket from all angles and the Purple defense was well-nigh perfect.

In the last game of the City Class A Race, the Panthers defeated Stripling 28-17. Central finished the city race with 11 victories and one defeat.

Central smothered Diamond Hill 45-15. The Purple-men showed up well on the free throws. Clyne Chappell, and Curtis were shining lights, while Hurst broke loose and captured 8 tails.

Diamond Hill gave Central a much better game than in the preceding game. Clyne, all-city champ, led the way in scoring. Diamond Hill succumbed, 23-20. By virtue of this victory, the Panthers advanced to the semi-finals of the district race.

Terrill Prep again showed her superiority. Although the Panthers fought hard, the Bonvals proved too much, and the Panthers went down, 41-26.

Central met Gainesville in the semi-finals of the Denton District Interscholastic League Tournament. Clyne, Chappell and Morgan played good games. Central 28 Gainesville 16.

Denton beat Central 29-12 in the game for the championship of District 10. Curtis, Clyne and Hurst played good games.

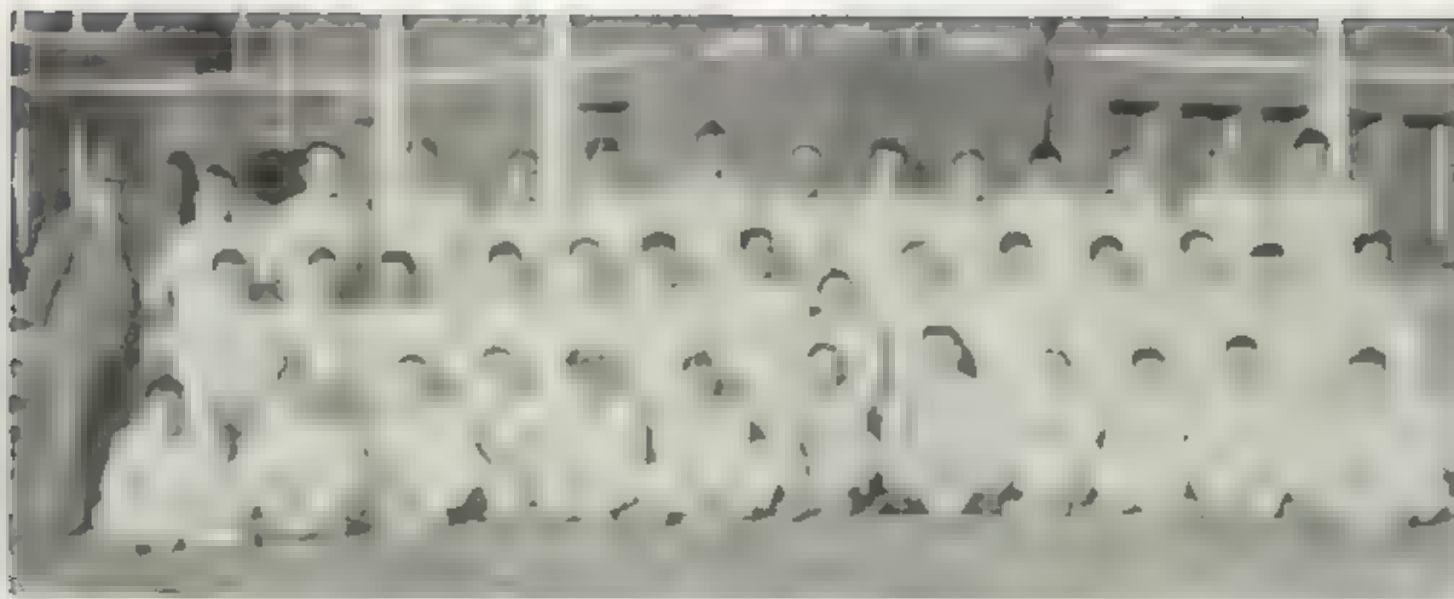

The 1940 basketball season was exceedingly successful from a Central standpoint. Out of a possible 18 games played, the Panthers won 14. Again they won the city crown and did well in the District games. We hope that the Panthers will bring the District title home to Central next season. Success to you, Panthers!

Review of Season

Although our track team this year was practically a new one, the boys possessed great spirit and fight, and showed up well in every meet they entered.

There were only two men left from last year's team—Bill Anderson and Robert Chappell. Bill was elected captain of the team.

The City Meet of 1930 will go down in the annals of Central as the closest and hardest fought in Central history. Our ancient rivals, the North Side Steers, won the meet by only a few points, the score being 56 5/6 points, and North Side 59 1/3 points. Nevertheless, twelve Central men qualified for the District Meet to North Side's ten.

CITY MEET

In the 880-yard run, Bill Anderson took first place, making a brilliant finish. He also was first in the broad jump, and tied with Draper for third highest points of the meet.

Foy Draper won both the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash in fine style, making a record in the 220 of twenty-three seconds.

Earl Meadows broke the old pole vault record of 10' 8" with a vault of 10' 11½". He also tied for first place in the high jump.

In the high hurdles, Richard Clynch won a well-earned third place, and finished second in the shot put.

Robert Chappell ran a brilliant race in the one-mile run, finishing third by a small margin.

James Milling took a third place in the 220 yard low hurdles. Clyde Hurst was third in the 100-yard dash, while he and J. H. Hudson took third and fourth places, respectively, in the 220-yard dash. Hurst was also second in the broad jump.

RICHARD CLYNCH, Weights, High Hurdles

FOY DRAPER, Dashes

LEON WOODLAND, Dashes

JAMES MILLING, Low Hurdles

CECIL SMITH, Middle Distance
 CLAUDE WARD, Dashes
 JIMMIE MARDLE, Weights

Cecil Smith won a fourth place in the 880 yard run, passing several fine runners in great style. Leon Woodland came in second in the 440-yard dash, and finished brilliantly.

Fonville Winans was tied for third place in the pole vault.

In the one-mile relay, a new record of three minutes, 40.6 seconds was made. The Central team finished second.

The twelve men qualified for the District meet were: Anderson, Smith, Clync, Hurst, Draper, Sandefer, Meadows, Winans, Woodland, Milling, Chappell, and Hudson. Central finished in the District Meet second to Woodrow Wilson of Dallas.

Among the notable events at Denton: Meadows tied for first in the high jump and pole vault. He vaulted 11 feet 3 inches. Fonville Winans was third in the vault.

Robert Chappell ran a beautiful race in the one-mile run, winning first place. His time was 4 minutes, 50 seconds.

FOREWORD

WHAT A BREAK! Now to check up on everybody's goings, comings and shortcomings. We've been slammed and we've been panned, but now little Eva appears, and — well, if your private sin, suppressed desire, or beauty secrets have been shouted and howled to Central's gossiping geese, send for "But When I started to Speak I Held Them Spellbound," or "Fascinating Womanhood," and try to regain de olde popularitye!!!

If you think we've gone too far, consider what we would have gotten from you if you'd had an extra nickel on Friday, a Mood at the crucial moment (adv.) or our chance to get even!! If we've got you all wrong, break down and give us some real stuff to judge by.

Ha! Ha! Now to pour it on you poor saps! Put on your shock absorbers and let the elocution begin!?!*

DEDICATION

To Tom, Dick, and Harry--Sally, Irene, and Mary—to you and even to me, we, the humble humorists, dedicate this "Cat's Whiskers."

Have Your Love Affairs Troubled You?
Ask Christabel—She Knows.

BY CHRISTABEL

Dear Miss Christabel:

I have the misfortune to be from a small town, but since I came up to Central, I am rapidly acquiring a blase air. I have had half a dozen dates with one of the Centralites, a senior, by the way, and my! she simply raves about me, but, oh, Christabel, I fear that something is coming between us. She often makes trips to town without my consent. What, oh, what shall I do to remove this obstacle? I fear I must go back to Midlothian. Help me! Help me!

Taldon Manton.

T. M.: I fear that you are too mournful by disposition. Smile at all the girls and maybe this senior will sit up and take notice. Perhaps that was your coat between you two.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Dear Christabel:

This is now my third year in Central, and I am worrying for fear I will have to become a school teacher unless I can find someone to whom I can give my love and affection. I have about decided to discard my Scholarship Society pin, bob my hair, wear two-colored shoes, and be a regular flapper. I do not want to do anything radical, but really, my dear Christabel, I am so desperate.

Florine McKinney.

F. McK.: I fear that you would use the wrong tactics if you should do anything like this. You ought to win men by appealing to their intellectual tastes, rather than by mere eye-tempting effects. Wear shell-rimmed glasses. If you cannot get them at Woolworth's, try McLellan's (paid adv.). Ask Mr. Paschal where he gets that "artistic" line of his. Adopt it.

Christabel, dear:

I am about to lose little Bob. He is a dimmutive lad and is a favorite with all the girls around Central. It is only through my winning ways, as the girls tell me, my beauty, that I can hold this handsome Greek god! He is so masculine, so appealing. I want my Bob.

Sincerely,
KATHRYN ELKINS.

K. E.: I suggest that you get him to make a date, presumably for church, and that you stop by the wayside and sweet-talk him. Try walking up and down the railroad. It is good exercise and will improve your unsurpassable beauty—if you do it at night.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Dear Christy:

I know that I am a handsome man, have a perfect figure, but am hand capped by a loathsome nickname. They call me "Hamburger." I have personality plus, and the girls all fall for me—when I trip 'em. My physique is said to resemble that of Apollo, and while I do not want to seem egotistical, I am conceded to be fairly handsome. The famous * * * has caught my eye, and as I have been a sober, Sunday-school boy, I don't see why another guy should beat my time.

Elliott Chipps.

E. C.: You should not spend so much time at your books, Elliott; the girls will think that you are a regular bookworm. Liven up a little bit. Don't be too Puritanical. You should learn to dance, smoke in public, and use a little slang around the other sex. They will then think that you have a sporting streak and that you are not "just like a preacher" after all. Your excessive amount of energy makes you work too hard. You need a rest.

My Dearest Christabel:

I want to tell you about one of my pets. It is the cutest thing you ever saw, has curly hair, and all the girls around the school call it "Marsey." It looks like a man, acts like a man, smokes like a man, and says "censored." What is it? It's my little itsybitsy, tinesy-winesy "Marsey." But "Marsey" worries me at times—he just will date other girls—sometimes. I have always been a good girl, before I came to Central, but got in with a wicked crowd, and they pulled the political strings and got me elected cadet sponsor. I detest popularity, and just hate to have every he-flapper in school hanging around me. What can I do to get a date with some muscular giant from out in the open places? I don't like tea-hounds any more. Central is too fast a place for me, I fear. They dance on the sly here!!!

Margery Lake Clevenger.

Margery, my dear, you are, as you say, in the wrong environment. I suggest that you get permission from your fond parents to enter a convent. You should marry a sailor, sailors come from out in the open places.

To Florence Williams: If you will send a two-cent stamped envelope to me in care of this publication, I will send you full directions on "How to Gain That Winning Personality."

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Dear Christabel:

I am a young man, a senior in Central, and after four long years, I find myself unable to attract the weaker sex. Though I have tried to develop my charms, and often make dates, it seems that my dates are like some doctors' prescriptions—they are unretillable. I am a letter man, but my sweater gains me no dates. What am I to do?

Herschel King.

Dear H. King: When you take girls out, stick with them; do not journey around, hunting a dozen or so at intervals. I also suggest that you refrain from talking so much; give the girl a chance to say a word or two. Avoid the frivolous and light subjects and stick to serious realities.

The humorist sits at his desk,
 Tears his hair
 In despair;
 He does his utmost to produce a laugh—
 From folks to drone
 A loud guffaw,
 A chuckle or a smile will do as well;
 Still he sits and thinks,
 Winks and blinks,
 Ponders,
 Deliberates
 Contemplates,
 Meditates,
 Ruminates,
 Reiterates,
 Suffocates,
 And finally goes crazy;
 Then folks laugh at him!

THE TALE OF A STAMP

I'm a stamp—
 A postage stamp—
 A two-center.
 Don't want to brag,
 But I was never
 Licked,
 Except once,
 By a gentleman, too;
 He put me on
 To a good thing;
 It was an envelope—
 Perfumed, pink, square;
 I've been stuck on
 That envelope
 Ever since.
 He dropped us—
 The envelope and me—
 Through a slot in a dark box;
 But we were rescued
 By a mail clerk.
 More's the pity;
 He hit me an awful
 Smash with a hammer;
 It left my face
 Black and blue;
 Then I went on a long
 Journey
 Of two days;
 And when we arrived—
 The pink envelope and me—
 We were presented
 To a perfect love
 Of a girl,
 With the stunningest pair
 Of blue eyes
 That ever blinked;

Say! She's a dream!
 Well, she mutilated
 The pink envelope
 And tore one corner of me off
 With a hairpin;
 Then she read what
 Was inside
 The pink envelope.
 I never saw a girl blush
 So beautifully!
 I would be stuck
 On her—if I could.
 Well, she placed
 The writing back
 In the pink envelope,
 Then she kissed me.
 Oh, you little godlets!
 Her lips were ripe
 As cherries,
 And warm
 As the summer sun.
 We—
 The pink envelope and me—
 Are now
 Nestling snugly
 In her bosom;
 We can hear
 Her heart throb;
 When it goes fastest
 She takes us out
 And kisses me.
 Oh, say,
 This is great!
 I'm glad
 I'm a stamp—
 A two-center.

EDUCATION—

All of us come into this world entirely helpless and entirely ignorant. As we grow older, each of us must acquire an education. With the passing of the years, we accumulate a considerable amount of knowledge. The vital question remains: How many times do we have to be taught the same lesson?

MODERN AS YOUTH ITSELF!

Within the space of a score of years, the scope of Southwestern Engraving Company has increased from the parent plant in Fort Worth to an organization of nine plants.

Pioneering the field in the introduction of modernistic art, a personal service bureau composed of former college annual editors and managers, the budget and dummy system, and field service men, the name "Southwestern" has become synonymous with art motifs that are distinctive, an understanding, helpful service, and printing plates that "print right."

REFLECTIONS OF A CENTRAL ATHLETE

The season is half over
And I've worked like a Trojan of old;
I wonder if all my endeavor
Is just worth a letter of gold?!?

Though they say my playing is splendid,
Oh, I'd give it all for a "coke";
How I wish my training were ended,
And I could sit for an hour and smoke.

The coach says of me and my stomach
We must be the closest of friends;
'Tis only brown toast that I feed it;
I owe it, I'm sure, some amends.

And I'm puzzled to know just what plagues me,
Why I sweat and toil at the game
And continue to stick by my training
When my body feels worn out and lame.

Oh, I guess I've got high school ambition;
And I'll tell you just what's on my docket;
To be first in love, and in honor first
And first in the student's pocket.

ONE ON THE FISH

"Doin' any good?" asked the curious individual on the bridge.
 "Any good?" answered the fisherman in the creek below. "Why, I caught forty bass out o' here yesterday."
 "Say, do you know who I am?" asked the man on the bridge.
 The fisherman replied that he did not.
 "Well, I am the county fish and game warden."
 The angler, after a moment's thought, exclaimed:
 "Say, do you know who I am?"
 "No," the officer replied.
 "Well, I'm the biggest liar in Eastern Indiana," said the crafty angler, with a grin.

WHAT

The Most Important Thing
-Y-O-U-R E-L-

You Have a House to Build

You employ a carpenter to build a house but as time goes by you notice that his work is not well done. You also notice that your house is developing very slowly. You ask the carpenter why he doesn't make more rapid progress and he answers that his tools are dull. You advise him to sharpen his tools but he says that if he stops to do that he will have to stop work on your house.

You attempt to show him that he will save time by stopping to sharpen his tools—that he will do his work more competently, more quickly, and with more credit to himself.

The argument ends and the carpenter continues to do slovenly work and is inexcusably slow. You may not tell him so, but you conclude that he is extremely foolish.

Throughout this country are thousands of young people starting to build houses—the life houses in which they will find their pleasures or bear their sorrows. Some of these young folks are building with sharp tools, with mental faculties that have been whetted by training and that will cut sharp and true.

Other thousands are trying to build with the dullest sort of tools—with minds that have not been developed—that have not been sharpened to cut into the material out of which life's great house is constructed.

Does it require a prophet to tell in advance which of these groups of young people will build the kind of houses that the world will admire—the kind that they themselves will be proud of and the kind in which they can live comfortably and happily?

Youthtime is planning time and building time. It comes but once. Neglect it and it is lost forever. Neglect it and it carries into after years of troubles that may be vexatious and disabling.

Youthtime is the time to sharpen mental tools for the great building job that lies ahead, and those of us who have our houses well along toward completion can only think as you do of the carpenter who is building your house—the boy or girl who permits anything to crowd out the opportunity to get an education is indeed foolish.

NEXT?

In the World-to YOU- -C-A-T-I-O-N!

FIRST, NEXT, THEN!

There is a nation-wide movement on among practical educators to emphasize the following program in education:

First, graduation from high school.

Next, business training.

Then, college or university.

Experience proves that the high school graduate who first has the advantage of intensive work of the private business school makes a better college or university student than does the graduate directly from high school.

A business education before college means financial independence in case the college course, for any reason, breaks down.

A college graduate who has previously had a course in the business subjects can often use his business course in getting started on the vocation for which he prepared in college.

Business has become a factor in every vocation of every kind. It is inescapable. Making a living involves a knowledge of business—making more than a living involves a larger knowledge of business—making a fortune is possible only to those who have a superior knowledge of business.

Finally, it is everywhere recognized that training in business doubles the value of a general, or a professional, education.

"If I wanted to succeed in any line I would get the advice of the most successful men in that line. If I chose to be a tramp, I would go to the most successful tramp. If I wanted to make my mark in the world, I would take the advice of the world's leaders."

What the World's Leaders Tell YOU!

ANDREW CARNEGIE, Steel King and Philanthropist:

I advise young men and women to save the most precious years of their lives by securing a business education, that they may go forth fully equipped early in life.

HON. W. T. HARRIS, Ex-Commissioner of Education:

Without a thorough and practical commercial education, a business man is like a ship at sea without a compass or a rudder.

E. H. HARRIMAN, America's Greatest Railroad Magnate:

I know of no training that costs so little and pays so much as a business college course.

JOHN WANAMAKER

Founder of America's Greatest Department Store:

In these days the young man or woman without business training stands little chance. A great, grand work is being done by the business colleges.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, World's Richest Man:

I believe that every young man and woman who wants to succeed in business should do as I did—take a course at a commercial college.

JAMES A. GARFIELD, Ex-President of the United States:

Business colleges furnish a better education for practical purposes than Princeton, Harvard or Yale.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT,

Ex-President of the United States:

Every girl should have a thorough business training to make her independent of marriage as a means of support. Then she need not marry except in obedience to the dictates of her heart. Business training makes her self-reliant, not a clinging vine, and if she marries she can contribute some strength to the partnership.

Mrs. Chipps: "How is it that you stand so much lower in your studies in January than in December?"

Elliott: "Oh, everything is marked down after the holidays."

SPECIFY, PLEASE

Bill Potts: "Will you marry me, dearest?"

"Pinky" Sloan: "Certainly. Companionate, trial, or fight to a finish?"

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

"Doc" Benson: "I hear Allan Rose hung his stockings up Christmas Eve."

Miss Holley: "What did he get?"

"Doc": "A notice from the Health Department."

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Statistics prove that out of every hundred marriages, fifty per cent are women.

"My worst sin," Margaret Faye Scott said, sadly, "is vanity; I spend hours a day before the mirror admiring my beauty."

"That's not vanity, dear," Evelyn Dellis sweetly replied, "that's imagination."

Stude: "I know a place where women don't wear anything but bracelets."

Also Stewed: "Where?"

Stude: "Around their wrists."

AFTERWORD

"It's all over"—the dirty cracks and slams. We guess you feel hacked, but we hope you do. We make no apologies as it was all done in the spirit of fun. If you have been too insignificant for us to notice, consider yourself lucky or unlucky, as the case may be. We expect to hear lots of complaints and all kinds of things about us, so please don't disappoint us.

It's an old "Panther" custom to thank all who have helped us put it over. We acknowledge appreciation to these:

- (1) The fellows whom we had to humor and beg in order to get their picture.
- (2) Those who worried us around the office, running down the section, and suggesting rare bits of humor that were very personal.
- (3) The person who tried to find out everything we were going to print.
- (4) The faculty, because they always furnish material for this section.
- (5) You—if you have struggled through this far.

THE EDITORS.

FINALE

Our worries are over; our task is done. The 1930 Panther is finished and the staff presents it for your approval, with no apologies. In our long hours of work we have endeavored to make this as complete and interesting an annual as possible. If in the future this Panther serves to recall delightful memories and happy associations of your youthful days at Central, its existence will have been fully justified.
